

My Story

I gave my life to Christ at a young age. But during middle school, I responded to issues in my family life and with my peers by placing my relationship with Him on the back burner. I knew that in my heart I was living like my friends that didn't know Jesus. In High School, a friend invited me to her youth group and church. God showed me that Jesus rose from the dead so I could be not only forgiven, but able to live a new life in Him. I surrendered everything to Him and was never the same!

In August 2005, I moved to Tampa to attend USF. I met a campus minister my first week, who invited me to Cornerstone. She discipled me and taught me how to share the Gospel boldly with others. I saw thousands of young people on the campus who needed someone to share with them the powerful message of God's love. That same message that had changed my life as a teenager. I knew God was calling me to full-time ministry to do just that.

In December 2007, I graduated and joined the staff of Cornerstone Christian Church.

I've spent the last 10 years ministering the life-changing Gospel to students. It's a joy and privilege to see their lives transformed and help equip them to change this world!
