Your partnership with us is so valuable! Together we are reaching young men and women with the gospel of Jesus Christ. This month we would like to share the testimony of a young man named Jordane.

In 2019, when I came to USF, I always wore a sweater that was gifted to me by my mother. It summarized a verse from Galatians on it - “..Faith + Works = Success”. A campus minister apparently saw it and stopped me for a conversation, he wanted to talk about Jesus, and I did not. I had grown up in a Christian household, got baptized twice, and was convinced I knew all of what the campus minister had to say – Ha!.

I kept seeing the same guy everyday though. Probably the 50th or so time after avoiding him, I stopped. I was reluctant at first, but I figured I could talk for a minute. He asked me about what I believed in. I talked. He talked. He listened. I kind of listened.

After talking for a while, he invited me to a Bible study. It took me a couple of months to accept the invite though – . During the first couple of Bible studies, it was honestly very educational. But then, the words from the Bible study started getting really personal and direct. I had to choose between my way and God’s way, between my righteousness (which I found out were filthy rags), and His righteousness (which is by faith). I counted the cost, and thankfully I chose Him. I repented of my sins and gave my life to Jesus in the Spring of 2020 and got baptized on March 13th, 2021. The campus minister was there too. Along with his best friends, who are now my friends.

Jordane prayed with Aldo to give his life to Jesus recently! Here’s a photo from Aldo’s baptism a few weeks later.

I am so thankful that a huge God would notice such a small me. And that He would take the time to tell a young man where to walk every morning, to catch me on my way to class or work, and to tell me that Jesus loves me, and that He died for my sins on a cross, and He wants a relationship with me. Like me.. specifically.. at this moment. That’s amazing! Now I walk the same avenues with my brothers and sisters in Christ, to tell others about this wonderful big God, that saved me, and wants to save them. Beautiful! Jordane

Please Pray For:

- New believers like Zacaria and Toria to come out of the world and into the church.
- Zoe to give her life to Jesus.
- Grace to continue to meet and connect with students receptive to the Gospel during Freshman orientation this summer.
- Our Bible study leaders to continue to be a bold witness to their friends and classmates on campus.
- New graduates to find a great job.

Also, please e-mail me back if you have any prayer requests, I love praying for you!
